

Sing Play Music Studio Policy

Robin Flores

Enrollment in the Let's Play Music program purchases a spot for the full 3 years in class, which means you are responsible for the payment of the full year even if you miss lessons, take weeks off, or quit in the middle of the year. If you drop out at any time during the year, you agree to pay the remaining tuition installments.

I understand that I will not receive a tuition refund for missed classes or for discontinuing the program. There are 15 lessons per semester. Tuition is due on Lesson 1 of the semester (please pay online at https://cash.me/\$singplaymusic2) There is a late fee of $10 each week the payment is late.

I understand that if I decide not to participate, my registration fee and materials fee will not be reimbursed.

I understand I will be charged a $150 drop fee if I choose to discontinue the program. If you need to transfer to another teacher or studio due to schedule or moving, please let your current teacher know first. Class numbers are crucial to the success and design of the Let's Play Music program.

Robin Flores-Sing Play Music studio will maintain a safe teaching environment, and has never had a problem with accidents. However, the Let's Play Music program does involve physical movement. By registering in the program, you, the parent or legal guardian, accept full financial liability for any accident or injury that could possibly happen to your child, yourself, or any guest accompanying you, while in my home or yard and release Robin Flores and all heirs and connections from all liability.
